NOTE TO THE TEACHER

These reproducible sheets are designed to help you as a storyteller. They do not take the place of the full text. Rather, in preparation to teach each story, read the full text carefully until you are familiar with it. Then use the key word sheets as a quick reference while telling the story to your group. So that you can use these sheets multiple times, you might place them back-to-back in clear plastic page protectors.

Chapter 1

Illustration #1

Young man pedaled fast as school bell began to ring.

Jim Elliot rounded corner, cloud of dust, hopped off, apologized to Fred

Hurried inside

Ran late MOST of the time

Known for energy and speed

Rushed into class

Good-looking, but it didn't matter to him

Hard time concentrating

Conversation coming with John about dance

Lunch bell—bowed head to pray

Friends looked at him strangely

Didn't have relationship with God

Remembered night when six years old

Realized his need, that Christ died for his sins, rose again

Told mother afterward that Jesus could come because ready now

Smiled at memory

Wanted friends to have relationship

Jesus meant everything.

Illustration #2

“Coming to dance, Wayne?”

John, the student body president approached.

Jim knew pressure was coming.

Wayne muttered about too much going on.
