

THE PROJECT

To produce an eight illustration gospel-focused biography that teachers can use in children's ministry and that parents can use with their children at home.

THE STORY

Susanna Wesley's life was marked by poverty, tragedy and the loss of loved ones, yet she filled the little space of her home with godly influence poured in to the lives of her children. Filling a Little Space tells that story.

THE AUTHOR

Chrystal Stauffer authored the BVI story, Neither Death, Nor Life: The Love of Jim & Elisabeth Elliot.

She lives in Manheim, Pennsylvania with her husband Michael and two children, Seth and Kate. She is a member of Harvest Bible Church in Lancaster.

THE ILLUSTRATORS

Bethany and Olivia Moy operate The Little Sisters Studio from their home in Bethel, Pennsylvania. We are excited to have them join us for their first BVI project! They are members of Faith Baptist Church in Lebanon, PA.

THE MISSION

To create gospel-focused visualized resources and to supply them to ministry partners worldwide with the purpose of "helping children see Jesus!"

Mother's Day

Filling a Little Space will also be part of our Occasion for the Gospel Series and will be a great resource to teach on Mother's Day.

Since we're still in production right now, you might consider this project for your church or Sunday School class as a special way to honor the mothers in your congregation. Or, maybe you'd like to give individually to honor a spouse, a mother or a mother-in-law.

The Cost

To produce and print a visualized story of this size we will need approximately $6000.

This will cover:

- freelance author and illustrator expenses,
- staff labor on the project
- the initial cost of printing at least 500 copies in our flashcard format.

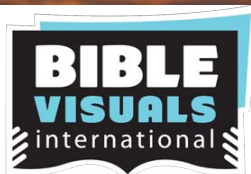

The Call

Missions isn't just about declaring God to the nations. It's also about declaring God to the generations.

This is one way to be invested in that work.
